PREFACE

The first edition K Tables: Form Division Tables for Law was published in 1999. Prior to that date, each individual K schedule used its own set of form division tables. Since 1999, all of the K schedules except the oldest three (KD, KE, and KF) have used this uniform set of tables, which were drafted by Jolande Goldberg, law classification specialist, and edited by Paul Weiss, senior cataloging policy specialist in the Policy and Standards Division. A 2005 edition of these tables cumulated additions and changes that were made between 1999 and 2005. This was followed by an edition in 2010. This 2016 edition includes all additions and changes made since the 2015 edition.

Access to the online version of the full Library of Congress Classification is available on the World Wide Web by subscription to Classification Web. Details about ordering and pricing may be obtained from the Cataloging Distribution Service at:

New or revised numbers and captions are added to these tables as a result of development proposals made by the cataloging staff of the Library of Congress and cooperating institutions. Upon approval of these proposals by the editorial meeting of the Policy and Standards Division, new classification records are created or existing records are revised in the master classification database. Lists of newly approved or revised classification numbers and captions are posted on the World Wide Web at:

Kent Griffiths and Ethel Tillman, assistant editors of classification schedules, are responsible for creating new classification records, maintaining the master database, and creating index terms for the captions.
